(The Associated Press.)

"BUFFALO BILL," IDOL OF ALL BOYS, CLAIMED BY DEATH

NOTED SCOUT OF THE WESTERN PLAINS SUCCUMBS TO THE GRIM REAPER—HAS BEEN ILL SEVERAL WEEKS.

(The Associated Press.)

DENVER, Col. Jan. 10.—William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), died at the home of his sister here late today.

Col. William F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill", hunter, soldier, scout and showman, was for many years known to nearly every man, woman, boy and girl in America through his wild west show with which he toured this country and Europe. He was a picturesque type of the pioneer frontiersman and lived to see large cities built where he once hunted the buffalo and fought Indians.

Col. William F. Cody was born in Scott county, Ia., February 26, 1846. His ancestral stock was Spanish, English and Irish. His parents moved west and took up a claim near Leavenworth, Kan., then a frontier Indian post, when Cody was five years old. At ten years of age he found himself the head of the family, owing to the death of his father, who was killed in an encounter, growing out of a dispute over the negro slave question. Young Cody's first employment was as a courier between the freight wagon trains operated between the Missouri river and the Rocky mountains. In turn he became wagon master, trapper, hunter, pony express rider and stage coach driver, all giving a varied experience in a school, the graduation from which left the scholar an adept in every possible line of frontier activity.

In exciting experience in the union army as a soldier and subsequently as a confident and scout of his commanders in the desultory and guerilla warfare of the southwest, left him at its finish well known as an all-around frontiersman, competent to advise, to guide and to lead. These qualities soon brought him to the attention of such distinguished commanders as General

J. R. Cole Recommended to Succeed Crouch as a Member of School Board

The board of public instruction of Volusia county met in regular session at 2:30 p. m. on January 9th, at DeLand. Of the retiring board only one member, V. W. Gould, was present, Commissioner George F. Crouch, reelected, having resigned. It was therefore necessary that the new board perfect organization before the transaction of any business.

Board called to order by Commissioner V. W. Gould; present, Commissioner V. W. Gould, District No. 2; Commissioner S. E. Lemmon, District No. 3, and C. R. M. Sheppard secretary. Upon motion, duly carried, V. W. Gould of District No. 2, was elected chairman. Recognizing a petition from the people of District No. 1, J. R. Cole was recommended to the state superintendent for appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George F. Crouch. C. R. M. Sheppard presented commission as county superintendent for the ensuing four years and assumed his duties as secretary to the board. Tuesday after the second Monday in each month, at 2:30 p. m., was set as the regular meeting dates.

Upon the perfection of the organization the following proposition of Tom B. Stewart was read, and Mr. Stewart was duly elected as the board's attorney for the next regular term:

"January 8, 1917.

"Board of Public Instruction, of Volusia county, Florida:

"Gentlemen: I hereby tender my services to your board as attorney for the next regular term, for the usual retainer of $150.00 per annum, payable every four months. In consideration of the retainer given I agree to attend all meetings of the board at which my presence may be desired, to render legal opinions upon matters that may arise; to draw deeds and such other papers as may be necessary for legal transactions of the board, the examining and passing upon deeds and abstracts, and to perform such other and further duties as the board may require in carrying out the regular duties of the board.

"In the event of School Bond issues I propose to handle the same, including the preparation of all forms, documents, etc., and validating of same for a minimum fee of $50.00 for bond issues up to and including ten thousand dollars, and an additional fee of five dollars per thousand in excess of ten thousand dollars, the board to bear all traveling expenses and costs necessarily sustained.

"In the event of litigation and other emergencies I guarantee that my charges will be reasonable and entirely satisfactory to the board.

"If elected attorney of your board I will exercise every care to insure all legal matters that may come within the discharge of my duty.

"Yours very truly,

(Signed) "TOM B. STEWART."

Upon the perfection of the organization the unfinished business of the retiring board was disposed of, accounts audited, bills allowed and warrants drawn to cover same.

The minutes of the last convention were read and approved, whereupon the following bids for the erection of a four-room frame school building for the colored people at Lake Helen were opened:

|---|---|
| I. C. Hughes | $2,447.00 |
| Knight & Marshall | 3,[illegible] |
| J. H. Bates & Sons | 3,[illegible] |
| C. E. Osborne | 2,[illegible] |
| J. P. Mace | 2,715.50 |
| W. A. Acker | 3,252.00 |

According to law the contract was awarded to I. C. Hughes for $2,447.00, and the secretary was instructed to execute contract with Mr. Hughes upon the presentation and the acceptance of surety bond in the sum of $1,200.00.

Superintendent Sheppard and Commissioner Gould were authorized to accept the Enterprise school building and to make the final payment on the contract for the same when fully completed, examined and approved by the board's architect.

The superintendent was instructed to renew two $1,000 notes for the trustees of Special Tax School district No. 6, which were due January 2, 1917.

A request of the Florida Engineering company that the board accept an assignment of said company of all payments due them on the contract for the erection of the DeLand Public School building, to the Volusia County bank, was rejected, due to the fact that the surety bond furnished by that company to the board specifies that under certain conditions such

J. R. Cole Recommended to Succeed Crouch as a Member of School Board

The board of public instruction of Volusia county, met in regular session at 2:30 p. m., on January 8th, at DeLand. Of the retiring board only one member, V. W. Gould, was present, Commissioner George F. Crouch, re-elected, having resigned. It was therefore necessary that the new board perfect organization before the transaction of any business.

Board called to order by Commissioner V. W. Gould; present, Commissioner V. W. Gould, District No. 2; Commissioner S. E. Lemmon, District No. 3, and C. R. M. Sheppard secretary. Upon motion, duly carried, V. W. Gould of District No. 2, was elected chairman. Recognizing a petition from the people of District No. 1, J. R. Cole was recommended to the state superintendent for appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George F. Crouch. C. R. M. Shep- Sheppard presented commission as county superintendent for the ensuing four years and assumed his duties as secretary to the board. Tuesday after the second Monday in each month, at 2:30 p. m., was set as the regular meeting dates.

Upon the perfection of the organization the following proposition of Tom B. Stewart was read, and Mr. Stewart was duly elected as the board's attorney for the next regular term:

"January 8, 1917.

"Board of Public Instruction, of Volusia county, Florida:

"Gentlemen: I hereby tender my serivces to your board at attorney for the next regular term, for the usual reatiner of $150.00 per annum, payable every four months. In consideration of the retainer given I agree to attend all meetings of the board at which my presence may be desired, to render legal opinions upon matters that may arise; to draw deeds and such other papers as may be necessary for legal transactions of the board, the examining and passing upon deeds and abstracts, and to perform such other and further duties as the board may require in carrying out the regular duties of the board.

"In the event of School Bond issues I propose to handle the same, including the preparation of all forms, documents, etc., and validating of same for a minimum fee of $50.00 for bond issues up to and including ten thousand dollars, and an additional fee of five dollars per thousand in excess of ten thousand dollars, the board to bear all traveling expenses and costs necessarily sustained.

"In the event of litigation and other emergencies I guarantee that my charges will be reasonable and entirely satisfactory to the board.

"If elected attorney of your board I will exercise every care to insure all legal matters that may come within the discharge of my duty.

"Yours very truly,

(Signed) "TOM B. STEWART."

Upon the perfection of the organization the unfinished business of the retiring board was disposed of, accounts audited, bills allowed and warrants drawn to cover same.

The minutes of the last convention were read and approved, whereupon the following bids for the erection of a four-room frame school building for the colored people at Lake Helen were opened:

| | |
|---|---|
| I. C. Hughes | $2,447.00 |
| Knight & Marshall | 3,381.00 |
| J. H. Bates & Sons | 3,830.00 |
| C. Z. Osborne | 2,887.70 |
| J. P. Mace | 2,715.50 |
| W. A. Auxier | 3,252.00 |

According to law the contract was awarded to I. C. Hughes for $2,447.00, and the secretary was instructed to execute contract with Mr. Hughes upon the presentation and the acceptance of surety bond in the sum of $1,200.00.

Superintendent Sheppard and Commissioner Gould were authorized to accept the Enterprise school building and to make the final payment on the contract for the same when fully completed, examined and approved by the board's architect.

The superintendent was instructed to renew two $1,000 notes for the trustees of Special Tax School district No. 6, which were due January 7, 1917.

A request of the Florida Engineering company that the board accept an assignment of said company of all payments due them on the contract for the erection of the DeLand Public School building, to the Volusia County bank, was rejected, due to the fact that the surety bond furnished by that company to the board specifies that under certain conditions such

"OUT OF THE DRIFTS," THRILLING ALPINE DRAMA

Marguerite Clark, the exquisite little Famous Players star, has been seen in many different characters but she has never done anything more absorbingly interesting and more thoroughly sympathetic than Elsie, the delightful little Alpine shepherdess in "Out of the Drifts," which is the next Paramount picture at the New Daytona theatre tomorrow.

"Out of the Drifts" is a big story of the great Alps and of the everlasting snows in which this superb little star is seen battling not only for life itself against the elements but to save herself from a young roue with whom a great avalanche has penned her in a deserted cabin. We have laughed and cried with Marguerite Clark in many funny and some touching situation, but in this story she gives us something entirely new—the fearless, unspoiled girl of the mountains whose simple trust in mankind and her Maker steels her courage in time of peril and wins our heartfelt sympathy in moments of distress.

Happy little Elise first learns the meaning of sorrow when her father loses his footing in the St. Bernard Pass and dies in her arms leaving her alone in the world. Rudolph, an Alpine guide, is desperately in love with Elise, but she does not return his affection. There arrives at the monastery a young Englishman named Reggie Van Rensselaer, who has come to Switzerland to forget his past follies in London.

Instantly attracted by the beauty of Elsie, Reggie meets and induces her to agree to accompany him to London in the belief that they are to be married there. But Rudolph discovers the real purpose behind Reggie's scheme and, in order to prevent it, he attempts to kill the stranger by cutting the guide-rope and sending him headlong down the precipice over which he has been dangling.

Reggie survives the fall and is taken to Elsie's cabin where she is just rescued from him by the timely arrival of Rudolph, who has fought his way through the avalanche. There is a tremendous struggle in the cabin and Reggie finally leaves thoroughly chastened in body and spirit. The supreme devotion of Rudolph and the utter unsophistication of Elise have their effect upon Reggie and he decides to live a different sort of life in the future.

So when Rudolph goes to London in search of Reggie, with whom he realizes that Elise is still in love, he finds him devoting himself to charity. Overjoyed at the news that Elise has forgiven him, Reggie returns to Switzerland and to Elise.

"THE DUMB GIRL OF PORTICI," JANUARY 13

The star, Anna Pavlowa, has graced the courts of both continents. As a member of the Imperial Russian ballet she created a furore throughout the United States, by her gifted talent and sensational dancing. As an emotional artiste, noted critics have compared her with Bernhardt and Nazimova. Youth, beauty and genuine love for her art made "The Dumb Girl of Portici," the smashing success that it is.

The producers, the Smalleys, occupy a front niche in the Hall of Famous directors. Originality with them is a dominant factor in all productions. "Hypocrites," and "Where Are My Children" reflect their master genius. No producers ever attempt the unusual without leaving a "bad taste" somewhere. Delicate situations; intricate themes; perfect casts; wonderful photography are only a few of their many requisites brought into play in all productions. In "The Dumb Girl of Portici," you see this combination worked out and spell success.

"The Dumb Girl of Portici" possess those elements that appeal to all the people. The spectacular and gorgeous scenes; acted by a cast of 500; with Pavlowa as the central figure make it the most impressive and wonderful production yet given to the screen. "The Dumb Girl of Portici" will be shown at the New Daytona January 13.

PRIZE OYSTERS.

OYSTER COCKTAIL.—Oyster cocktails are served in ice shells made for this purpose or in cases made from green pepper shells, in halves of grapefruit or in large claret glasses. Put five small oysters into each glass. For twelve cocktails allow even teaspoonfuls each of prepared horseradish, tomato ketchup and vinegar, ten teaspoonfuls of lemon juice and one of tabasco sauce. Thoroughly mix the dressing and put an equal quantity into each glass. Both oysters and dressing should be very cold.

Escalloped Oysters.—Butter a baking dish; then, having ready a dish of breadcrumbs, put first a layer of crumbs, then a layer of oysters, butter in little pieces, salt and pepper; repeat until the dish is full, being careful to have the crumbs on top, with small pieces of butter. Moisten with milk and a little of the oyster liquor. Bake until a good brown in a hot oven.

Chicken and Oyster Patties.—Put two tablespoonfuls of butter and three of flour in a saucepan; add one-fourth teaspoonful white pepper and one-half teaspoonful salt. Place over the fire and when melted and thoroughly mixed add one pint of milk or cream. Stir until thickened. Add one pint of cut up chicken and let simmer for five minutes. Add one pint of oysters, drained, and cook until the edges curl. Heat patty shells and fill with the mixture.

Oysters a la Newburg.—Drain two dozen oysters and place in a very hot pan. Add a tablespoonful of butter, a saltspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Stir until the oysters are cooked, then add the beaten yolk of an egg and three tablespoonfuls of cream or milk, mixing well with the egg. Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Add two teaspoonfuls of sherry, stir well and do not permit to boil. Serve on toast.

Oysters a la Creole.—Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan and add one slice of onion and cook until pale brown. Add a cupful of stewed tomatoes. When the mixture thickens add a pint of drained oysters and cook until the edges have curled. As seasoning add a drop of tabasco sauce, a half teaspoonful of salt and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and pour on toast to serve.

SARAH BERNHARDT TO APPEAR SHORTLY AT SAINT AUGUSTINE

Manager E. R. Groff, manager of the Jefferson theater of St. Augustine, was a visitor to Daytona yesterday for the purpose of placing publicity for the coming engagement of Madam Sarah Bernhardt, who appears there Tuesday, January 16.

The appearance for one single and unforgettable performance in this locality of Mme. Sarah Bernhart, the most marvelous actress that the world has known during the past fifty years, will be an event of extraordinary importance. Fresh from her triumphs at the Empire theater in New York where for three weeks she lately held crowds spellbound by her amazing art and her still more amazing youthfulness. Mme. Bernhardt will be seen in St. Augustine on Tuesday, January 16, at the Jefferson theater, in three varied characters, carefully chosen to reveal her at her best, and in some of her most interesting plays.

She will be supported by her own company, from her Paris theater and will bring with her the costumes, scenery and properties used in the original productions. Her leading man, Jean Angelo, has come straight from the French trenches, where he was wounded more than once, to fulfill his present engagement. He is a son of that Mr. Angelo who supported Mme. Bernhardt during her first visit to this country.

The program will be opened by a fascinating one act arrangement of the immortal tale of Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, made by Henri Cain and Mme. Bernhardt's son, Maurice. It will reveal the great star in a tragic hour, defying Caesar the Victorious and choosing death before dishonor. In this play Mme. Bernhardt seems to realize the line "Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety." She seems Cleopatra to the very life—and death.

The second feature on the program will be an amusing comedy, played by the company, and entitled "The Husband's Luck," in which the husband gets the better of two rivals for his coquettish wife's affections. In the third of the four plays announced, entitled, "From the Stage to the Field of Honor," Mme. Bernhardt will impersonate a young soldier at the front in France, who, after saving the flag entrusted to him by his dead father, himself falls a martyr exclaiming, with his last breath, "Long Live France!" Out of deference to American neutrality, Mme. Bernhardt will omit the terrific and ironic passage known as a "Prayer for Our Enemies" and substituting Victor Hugo's admirable poem, "Patria." The last and no doubt, to many, the most attractive episode in the performance, will be the beautiful and moving final act of Dumas' "Lady of the Camelias," best known here as "Camille."

Since she was seen here last, Mme. Bernhardt's interpretation of the soldier in "From the Stage to the Field of Honor" that in New York and other places, it brought audience, not figuratively, but literally, to their feet.

Since she was seen herel ast, Mme. Bernhardt has braved Zeppelins and submarines, and paid homage to the statue of the heroic Joan of Arc at Rheims. Not many months ago she also visited the French trenches, where she gave a memorable performance to the delighted soldiers.

"OUT OF THE DRIFTS," THRILLING ALPINE DRAMA

Marguerite Clark, the exquisite little Famous Players star, has been seen in many different characters but she has never done anything more absorbingly interesting and more thoroughly sympathetic than Elsie, the delightful little Alpine shepherdess in "Out of the Drifts," which is the next Paramount picture at the New Daytona theatre tomorrow.

"Out of the Drifts" is a big story of the great Alps and of the everlasting snows in which this superb little star is seen battling not only for life itself against the elements but to save herself from a young roue with whom a great avalanche has penned her in a deserted cabin. We have laughed and cried with Marguerite Clark in many funny and some touching situation, but in this story she gives us something entirely new—the fearless, unspoiled girl of the mountains whose simple trust in mankind and her Maker steels her courage in time of peril and wins our heartfelt sympathy in moments of distress.

Happy little Elise first learns the meaning of sorrow when her father loses his footing in the St. Bernard Pass and dies in her arms leaving her alone in the world. Rudolph, an Alpine guide, is desperately in love with Elise, but she does not return his affection. There arrives at the monastery a young Englishman named Reggie Van Rensselaer, who has come to Switzerland to forget his past follies in London.

Instantly attracted by the beauty of Elsie, Reggie meets and induces her to agree to accompany him to London in the belief that they are to be married there. But Rudolph discovers the real purpose behind Reggie's scheme and, in order to prevent it, he attempts to kill the stranger by cutting the guide-rope and sending him headlong down the precipice over which he has been dangling.

Reggie survives the fall and is taken to Elsie's cabin where she is just rescued from him by the timely arrival of Rudolph, who has fought his way through the avalanche. There is a tremendous struggle in the cabin and Reggie finally leaves thoroughly chastened in body and spirit. The supreme devotion of Rudolph and the utter unsophistication of Elise have their effect upon Reggie and he decides to live a different sort of life in the future.

So when Rudolph goes to London in search of Reggie, with whom he realizes that Elise is still in love, he finds him devoting himself to charity. Overjoyed at the news that Elise has forgiven him, Reggie returns to Switzerland and to Elise.

"THE DUMB GIRL OF PORTICI," JANUARY 13

The star, Anna Pavlowa, has graced the courts of both continents. As a member of the Imperial Russian ballet she created a furore throughout the United States, by her gifted talent and sensational dancing. As an emotional artiste, noted critics have compared her with Bernhardt and Nazimova. Youth, beauty and genuine love for her art made "The Dumb Girl of Portici," the smashing success that it is .

The producers, the Smalleys, occupy a front niche in the Hall of Famous directors. Originality with them is a dominant factor in all productions. "Hypocrites," and "Where Are My Children" reflect their master genius. No producers ever attempt the unusual without leaving a "bad taste" somewhere. Delicate situations; intricate themes; perfect casts; wonderful photography are only a few of their many requisites brought into play in all productions. In "The Dumb Girl of Portici," you see this combination worked out and spell success.

"The Dumb Girl of Portici" possess those elements that appeal to all the people. The spectacular and gorgeous scenes; acted by a cast of 500; with Pavlowa as the central figure make it the most impressive and wonderful production yet given to the screen. "The Dumb Girl of Portici" will be shown at the New Daytona January 13.

For twelve cocktails allow even teaspoonfuls each of prepared horseradish, tomato ketchup and vinegar, ten teaspoonfuls of lemon juice and one of tabasco sauce. Thoroughly mix the dressing and put an equal quantity into each glass. Both oysters and dressing should be very cold.

Escalloped Oysters.—Butter a baking dish; then, having ready a dish of breadcrumbs, put first a layer of crumbs, then a layer of oysters, butter in little pieces, salt and pepper; repeat until the dish is full, being careful to have the crumbs on top, with small pieces of butter. Moisten with milk and a little of the oyster liquor. Bake until a good brown in a hot oven.

Chicken and Oyster Patties.—Put two tablespoonfuls of butter and three of flour in a saucepan; add one-fourth teaspoonful white pepper and one-half teaspoonful salt. Place over the fire and when melted and thoroughly mixed add one pint of milk or cream. Stir until thickened. Add one pint of cut up chicken and let simmer for five minutes. Add one pint of oysters, drained, and cook until the edges curl. Heat patty shells and fill with the mixture.

Oysters a la Newburg.—Drain two dozen oysters and place in a very hot pan. Add a tablespoonful of butter, a saltspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Stir until the oysters are cooked, then add the beaten yolk of an egg and three tablespoonfuls of cream or milk, mixing well with the egg. Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Add two teaspoonfuls of sherry, stir well and do not permit to boil. Serve on toast.

Oysters a la Creole.—Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan and add one slice of onion and cook until pale brown. Add a cupful of stewed tomatoes. When the mixture thickens add a pint of drained oysters and cook until the edges have curled. As seasoning add a drop of tabasco sauce, a half teaspoonful of salt and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and pour on toast to serve.

SARAH BERNHARDT TO APPEAR SHORTLY AT SAINT AUGUSTINE

Manager E. R. Groff, manager of the Jefferson theater of St. Augustine, was a visitor to Daytona yesterday for the purpose of placing publicity for the coming engagement of Madam Sarah Bernhardt, who appears there Tuesday, January 16.

The appearance for one single and unforgettable performance in this locality of Mme. Sarah Bernhart, the most marvelous actress that the world has known during the past fifty years, will be an event of extraordinary importance. Fresh from her triumphs at the Empire theater in New York where for three weeks she lately held crowds spellbound by her amazing art and her still more amazing youthfulness. Mme. Bernhardt will be seen in St. Augustine on Tuesday, January 16, at the Jefferson theater, in three varied characters, carefully chosen to reveal her at her best, and in some of her most interesting plays.

She will be supported by her own company, from her Paris theater and will bring with her the costumes, scenery and properties used in the original productions. Her leading man, Jean Angelo, has come straight from the French trenches, where he was wounded more than once, to fulfill his present engagement. He is a son of that Mr. Angelo who supported Mme. Bernhardt during her first visit to this country.

The program will be opened by a fascinating one act arrangement of the immortal tale of Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt, made by Henri Cain, and Mme. Bernhardt's son, Maurice. It will reveal the great star in a tragic hour, defying Caesar the Victorious and choosing death before dishonor. In this play Mme. Bernhardt seems to realize the line "Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety." She seems Cleopatra to the very life—and death.

The second feature on the program will be an amusing comedy, played by the company, and entitled "The Husband's Luck," in which the husband gets the better of two rivals for his coquetish wife's affections. In the third of the four plays announced, entitled, "From the Stage to the Field of Honor," Mme. Bernhardt will impersonate a young soldier at the front in France, who, after saving the flag entrusted to him by his dead father, himself falls a martyr exclaiming, with his last breath, "Long Live France!" Out of deference to American neutrality, Mme. Bernhardt will omit the terrific and ironic passage known as a "Prayer for Our Enemies" and substituting Victor Hugo's admirable poem, "Patria." The last and no doubt, to many, the most atractive episode in the performance, will be the beautiful and moving final act of Dumas' "Lady of the Camelias," best known here as "Camille."

Since she was seen here last, Mme. Bernhardt's interpretation of the soldier in "From the Stage to the Field of Honor" that in New York and other places, it brought audience, not figuratively, but literally, to their feet.

Since she was seen herel ast, Mme. Bernhardt has braved Zeppelins and submarines, and paid homage to the statue of the heroic Joan of Arc at Rheims. Not many months ago she also visited the French trenches, where she gave a memorable performance to the delighted soldiers.

THOSE TEN YEARS HENCE

To the Residents and Property Owners of Daytona and the Peninsula:

Your county commissioner herewith appeals for your kindly co-operation to assist him in the speedy completion of the work begun on the Daytona end of the DeLand public highway.

Since Saturday morning we have had 12 convicts at work on centers, about three-quarters of a mile of badly bogged road to a serviceable condition. We need teams to carry sand from Mount Ararat toward the city line. Five teams daily in all I have been able to get so far and I had to plead for these. One of these teams failed to report this morning, showing some private citizen's needs to be evidently greater than the need of the county in the reconstruction of its public road to a fit condition for travel. The owners of teams answer to blame in this matter. They are aware of our needs and would gladly assist but dislike to incur the displeasure of their private patrons through delay.

At the work of combining the heavy roadbed with sand goes further from the sand deposit to the city line, the distance becomes greater and team work moves up correspondingly. The working force remains quite small, and more while awaiting the arrival of material. This produces an unavoidable delay of the work and causes leg of man power. Above all things I hate waste and delay.

Other parts of our highway need this correct force badly. I am unable to produce the right results with 12 men and only five horses, which constitute an unbalanced proportion. Besides this, a receiving rain may at any time undo much of what we have thus far accomplished and your cooperation is solicited for speedy completion of the work.

In view of the foregoing your commissioner herewith appeals most earnestly to those public spirited citizens who are engaging teams just now for private work, to place them at the disposal for at least three days between tomorrow Thursday noon and permit their contractors to have forty report to me at Mount Ararat at 7:30 a. m. Saturday. I shall want an additional two-horse teams for at least three days. Who will assist me to obtain them? I shall be in my office in the Arcade building on North Beach street until 9:00 this evening to receive reports. You can also call me by phoning to number 262 red, and telling me who your contractor is, so that I may obtain him. The county pays $3 per day for a two-horse team with wagon or not less than one cubic yard scraper capacity.

CHAS. F. BUSHMAN,
Chairman Board of County Commissioners.

Three members were also received by affiliation, a pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation by the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. F. L. Stanley, of a silver spoon to each of the officers who had served with her during the year, as a memento of their admirable association. ## JAMES H. LANE SUNDAY M

Information has been received by friends in this city of the death Sunday evening, at his home in Miami, of James H. Lane, 57, of Norwalk, Conn.

Mr. Lane and his family were well known in this city and vicinity. It is their custom for many years to spend the winter months in Daytona or their home in Miami and Mr. Lane had owned the property on which the city water works stands.

Mrs. Vroome will have the sympathy of a host of friends in her bereavement, which she will keenly because of her close association with her father and the several years he had been a resident. Receiving her wonderful strength, she will not go forth until spring, it is understood.

Prominent Suffolk people of St. Prince George who will remain definitely are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. [illegible] accompanied by their daughters, Marion and Doris. Mr. Suffolk is a prominent merchant of Suffolk and the largest retail shoe store in that community. This is the Suffolk's first visit to Daytona and they are sure much impressed with the attractiveness and beauty.

Under the influence of low pressure over the east lake region, there were rains or snow from the upper Ohio valley northward. Elsewhere over the country the weather is generally fair.

Temperatures continue above the seasonal average over much of the country east of the Rocky mountains, but colder weather has set in over the northwest with zero temperature over the extreme northern lake section, and about 20 degrees below in southern Canada. The winds are mostly southerly on the lower coasts. Conditions favor continued fair weather, and somewhat colder tonight and Thursday.

The funeral was largely attended and there were many beautiful floral pieces. Col. Shaffner was a member of the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and also of the several Masonic bodies. The remains will be forwarded today to St. Louis, Mo., for interment.

WORK OF RESTORING FORT MATANZAS FINISHED

ST. AUGUSTINE, Jan. 10.—Work on Fort Matanzas has been finished, the entire amount available having been expended. The old fort has been restored and a stairway has been built which makes entrance and exit convenient. The old structure was falling to pieces when the work of repairing it was ordered. ## MORE TEAMS NEEDED

To the Residents and Property Owners of Daytona and the Peninsula:

Your county commissioner herewith appeals for your kindly co-operation to assist him in the speedy completion of the work begun on the Daytona end of the DeLand public highway.

Since Saturday morning we have had 22 convicts at work to restore about three-quarters of a mile of badly bogged road to a serviceable condition. We need teams to carry sand from Mount Ararat toward the city line. Five teams daily is all I have been able to get so far and I had to plead for these. One of these teams failed to report this morning, showing some private citizen's needs to be evidently greater than the need of the county in the restoration of its public road to a fit condition for travel. The owners of teams are not to blame in this matter. They are aware of our needs and would gladly assist but dislike to incur the displeasure of their private patrons through delay.

As the work of cushioning the boggy roadbed with sand goes further from the sand deposit to the city line, the distance becomes greater and team work slows up correspondingly. The working force remains idle more and more while awaiting the arrival of material. This produces an unavoidable delay of the work and slowing up of man-power. Above all things I hate waste and delay.

Other parts of our highway need this convict force badly. I am unable to produce the right results with 22 men and only five terms, which constitute an unbalanced proportion. Besides this, a recurring rain may at any time undo much of what we have thus far accomplished and your commissioner is anxious for speedy completion of the work.

In view of the foregoing your commissioner herewith appeals most earnestly to those public spirited citizens who are engaging teams just now for private work, to place them at his disposal for at least three days beginning tomorrow, Thursday morning, and permit their contractors to have them report to me at Mount Ararat at 7:00 in the morning. I shall want six additional two-horse teams for at least three days. Who will assist me to obtain them? I shall be in my office in the Arcade building on North Beach street until 8:00 this evening to receive offers. You can also call me by phoning to number 262 red, and telling me who your contractor is, so that I may inform him. The county pays $5 per day for a two-horse team with wagon of not less than one cubic yard measurement.

CHAS. F. BURGMAN,
Chairman Board of Commissioners.

LIVE OAK CHAPTER INSTALLS OFFICERS

The regular meeting of Live Oak chapter, No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star, held in Masonic hall Tuesday evening was largely attended and many visitors were included. The meeting was of special interest through the fact that there was installation of officers and initiation of three candidates. Three members were also received by affiliation. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation by the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. M. L. Stanley, of a silver spoon to each of the officers who had served with her during the year, as a souvenir of their agreeable association. Mrs. Stanley in turn received a basket of flowers and small gift from members of the chapter. Following the installation and initiation ceremonies and other work of the chapter, a social period and refreshments were enjoyed.

[illegible] OVER FRONT [illegible] OVER DAYTONA [illegible]MENT TO BEACH

BURNING OF SOOT IN CHIMNEY OF T. FRED BROWN RESIDENCE MAKES EXCITEMENT IN LOWER DAYTONA BEACH.

Much excitement and no damage [illegible] caused Tuesday night about 9:00 when the soot caught fire in a chimney of the T. Fred Brown residence [illegible] South Peninsula drive and the river front, lower Daytona Beach. For a few moments the chimney belched forth flames and smoke in a [illegible] manner, for about 25 feet into the air, so that they were plainly visible from Daytona. The Brown servants immediately phoned for the fire department and first obtained Chief [illegible] E. French, of the Daytona Fire department who immediately took over a chemical in an automobile to the Brown residence, and saw that the fire was thoroughly extinguished.

At the receipt of the alarm, which the telephone exchange also sent to the Daytona Beach department the fire whistle in the hall next to the Daytona Beach garage, was blown several times in accordance with the regulations, and brought to the street scores of beach residents who looked in vain for a red glare in any part of the town. Several automobiles speeded down the asphalt pavement on Peninsula drive to the scene of the fire but all found that the cause of the excitement had been extinguished.

As the Daytona Beach fire truck was not in running order the department did not respond to the call.

WORK CONTINUES ON NEW BUILDING

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE ON EARL STREET WILL BE READY FOR FURNITURE IN LESS THAN A MONTH.

Nearly forty carpenters are at work each day on the finishing of the new Seabreeze-Daytona Beach school building which is being erected by C. T. Dawkins, general contractor, on the corner of Earl street and Grandview avenue, Seabreeze.

The doors and windows of the building have all been hung. The cloak rooms in each class room are completed and many other details are ready. The floors of the various rooms are now being laid and the hall floors will be started in a few days.

Superintendent Amos of the C. T. Dawkins company, says that the building will be ready for the installation of furniture in less than three weeks. The crowded condition of the present building since the Christmas holidays makes Principal Homer E. Wakefield more anxious than ever to get his school settled in the new building before much longer.

The many friends of Rev. Kerr Boyce Tupper, D. D., of Philadelphia, Pa., the well known divine and lecturer, will be pleased to hear that he is now delivering a series of sermons at the St. Augustine Baptist church. This fine speaker has addressed audiences and congregations at the beach in past years. Those who have heard him once never fail to grasp a second chance to hear him. It is hoped by his friends here that he will come to the beach while he is in Florida.

"BUFFALO BILL," IDOL OF ALL BOYS, CLAIMED BY DEATH

W. T. Sherman, Lieut.-Gen. Phil Sheridan and Generals Crook, Custer, Merritt, Carr, Royal, Miles, Dodge and others and secured his appointment as chief of scouts in the United States army during his numerous Indian campaigns in the west.

His career in this line identified him with the great fighting epoch between the red man and the white man waged by Gen. Sheridan after the Civil war that temporarily ended in 1876, but was effectively finished in the Ghost Dance war in the decisive battle of Wounded Knee in 1890-91 campaign with the Northern Sioux.

During the construction of the Union Pacific railroad young Cody attached himself to a camp of United States troops protecting the laborers and won his sobriquet of "Buffalo Bill" by taking a contract to supply the entire force with fresh buffalo meat for a certain period, killing under one contract 4,280 buffaloes. On one occasion he killed the noted Cheyenne Chief Yellow Hand in the presence of Indians and troops.

He became known to juvenile America in the stories of the western adventure written by E. Z. C. Judson who wrote under the nom de plume of Ned Buntline.

With the advance of civilization, finding his occupation on the western plains gone, he went on the stage where he remained several years playing leading parts in dramas depicting life on the frontier. Later in association with Nate Salsbury, he organized his wild west show with which he toured this country for many years and on one occasion visited the principal cities of Europe, where he was warmly received and entertained by royalty.

He was elected to the Nebraska legislature in 1872.

Colonel Cody, in 1866, was married to Miss Louisa Frederici.

MAKING AUTOMOBILE TOUR TO POINTS ON WEST COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Goodrich of Boston, who arrived Sunday, left this morning for an auto trip to the West Coast, and are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bryant. The party are making the trip in Mr. Goodrich's Cadillac and expect to visit Tampa, St. Petersburg, Tarpon Springs and Port Richey. They will return some time during next week. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and plan to enjoy many pleasant automobile tours while here. They have previously visited Daytona, having been guests at the Deepland hotel during the season of six years ago on their last visit to the city.

GAS AND TIRES TAKE JUMP AND JOY RIDES ARE TO COST MORE

GASOLINE IS ONE CENT HIGHER AND TIRES COST FROM 10 TO 20 PER CENT MORE THAN BEFORE FIRST OF MONTH.

Automobile tires as well as all other rubber goods connected with the automobile industry have increased in price this month from 10 to 20 per cent, and the high cost of joyriding is a serious subject of conversation.

Gasoline has jumped one cent a gallon, the Standard Oil company being the first to raise and the other companies following suit. The wholesale price was 23 cents and the increase brings it to 24 cents. For a couple of weeks all filling stations in Daytona have been retailing gasoline at the wholesale price. This is caused by competition between the various oil companies but it is not likely but what the price will be increased so as to leave the dealer a slight margin of profit, at least.

As a matter of fact gasoline retailers figure a loss of at least 1 cent a gallon from evaporation and when they retail the fluid at the same price for which they buy it there cannot help but be a perceptible loss on every gallon sold.

COUSIN OF W. H. GARDINER AWARDED VICTORIA CROSS

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Blake of Brampton, Ontario, Canada, cousins of W. H. Gardiner of this city, who had been guests for awhile at the Deepland hotel, received word recently that another cousin, Wilfred Gardiner, had just received the Victoria cross for "unusual and initiative bravery on the front in France." This is the most highly prized decoration awarded by the sovereign of Great Britain to members of the British army or navy for remarkable valor.

...ER FRONT ...OVER DAYTONA ...ARTMENT TO BEACH

...much excitement and no damage ...caused Tuesday night about 9:00 ...when the soot caught fire in a chim... of the T. Fred Brown residence ...South Peninsula drive and the ...er front, lower Daytona Beach. ...For a few moments the chimney ...belched forth flames and smoke in a ...fearful manner, for about 35 feet into ...the air, so that they were plainly visi... from Daytona. The Brown ser... immediately phoned for the fire ...department and first obtained Chief W. E. French, of the Daytona Fire de...partment who immediately took over a chemical in an automobile to the ...Brown residence, and saw that the ...fire was thoroughly extinguished.

At the receipt of the alarm, which the telephone exchange also sent to the Daytona Beach department the fire whistle in the hall next to the Day... Beach garage, was blown several times in accordance with the regula...tions, and brought to the street scores of beach residents who looked in vain for a red glare in any part of the town. Several automobiles speeded down the asphalt pavement on Peninsula drive to the scene of the fire but all found that the cause of the excitement had been extinguished.

As the Daytona Beach fire truck was not in running order the department did not respond to the call.

WORK CONTINUES ON NEW BUILDING

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE ON EARL STREET WILL BE READY FOR FURNITURE IN LESS THAN A MONTH.

Nearly forty carpenters are at work each day on the finishing of the new Seabreeze-Daytona Beach school building which is being erected by C. T. Dawkins, general contractor, on the corner of Earl stert and Grandview avenue., Seabreeze.

The doors and windows of the building have all been hung. The cloakrooms in each class room are completed and many other details are ready. The floors of the various rooms are now being laid and the hall floors will be started in a few days.

Superintendent Amos of the C. T. Dawkins company, says that the building will be ready for the installation of furniture in less than three weeks. The crowded condition of the present building since the Christmas holidays makes Principal Homer E. Wakefield more anxious than ever to get his school settled in the new building before much longer.

"BUFFALO BILL," IDOL OF ALL BOYS, CLAIMED BY DEATH

W. T. Sherman, Lieut.-Gen. Phil Sheridan and Generals Crook, Custer, Merritt, Carr, Royal, Miles, Dodge and others and secured his appointment as chief of scouts in the United States army during its numerous Indian campaigns in the west.

His career in this line identified him with the great fighting epoch between the red man and the white man waged by Gen. Sheridan after the Civil war that temporarily ended in 1876, but was effectively finished in the Ghost Dance war in the decisive battle of Wounded Knee in 1890-91 campaign with the Northern Sioux.

During the construction of the Union Pacific railroad young Cody attached himself to a camp of United States troops protecting the laborers and won his sobriquet of "Buffalo Bill" by taking a contract to supply the entire force with fresh buffalo meat for a certain period, killing under one contract 4,280 buffaloes. On one occasion he killed the noted Cheyenne Chief Yellow Hand in the presence of Indians and troops.

He became known to juvenile America in the stories of the western adventure written by E. Z. C. Judson who wrote under the nom de plume of Ned Buntline.

With the advance of civilization, finding his occupation on the western plains gone, he went on the stage where he remained several years playing leading parts in dramas depicting life on the frontier. Later in association with Nate Salsbury, he organized his wild west show with which he toured this country for many years and on one occasion visited the principal cities of Europe, where he was warmly received and entertained by royalty.

He was elected to the Nebraska legislature in 1872.

MAKING AUTOMOBILE TOUR TO POINTS ON WEST COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Goodrich of Boston, who arrived Sunday, left this morning for an auto trip to the West Coast, and are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bryant. The party are making the trip in Mr. Goodrich's Cadillac and expect to visit Tampa, St. Petersburg, Tarpon Springs and Port Richey. They will return some time during next week. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant and plan to enjoy many pleasant automobile tours while here. They have previously visited Daytona, having been guests at the Despland hotel during the season of six years ago on their last visit to the city.

GAS AND TIRES TAKE JUMP AND JOY RIDES ARE TO COST MORE

GASOLINE IS ONE CENT HIGHER AND TIRES COST FROM 10 TO 20 PER CENT MORE THAN BEFORE FIRST OF MONTH.

Automobile tires as well as all other rubber goods connected with the automobile industry have increased in price this month from 10 to 20 per cent, and the high cost of joyriding is a serious subject of conversation.

Gasoline has jumped one cent a gallon, the Standard Oil company being the first to raise and the other companies following suit. The wholesale price was 23 cents and the increase brings it to 24 cents. For a couple of weeks all filling stations in Daytona have been retailing gasoline at the wholesale price. This is caused by competition between the various oil companies but it is not likely but what the price will be increased so as to leave the dealer a slight margin of profit, at least.

As a matter of fact gasline retailers figure a loss of at least 1 cent a gallon from evaporation and when they retail the fluid at the same price for which they buy it there cannot help but be a perceptible loss on every gallon sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Blake of Brampton, Ontario, Canada, cousins of W. H. Gardiner of this city, who had been guests for awhile at the Despland hotel, received word recently that another cousin, Wilfrid Gardiner, had just received the Victoria cross for "unusual and initiative bravery on the front in France." This is the most highly prized decoration awarded by the sovereign of Great Britain to members of the British army or navy for remarkable valor.

Program of Fancy Dancing Very Gracefully Executed

Surpassing any former entertainments which have been given at the Palmetto clubhouse in its beauty and grace, and attended by a very large and appreciative group of people from Daytona, Seabreeze and DeLand, proved the treat given Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the music department of the club, arranged by Miss Edna Post of Washington who had full charge of the program. Pretty young girls in Grecian robes with all the beauty and fragrance of youth, portraying the grace and abandon of the woodland nymphs danced. The solo numbers showed special ability of the students under the able training of Miss Post.

The program was diversified and well carried out and each number was splendidly executed. A number of Daytona's little girls including Frances Conrad, Mary Weeks, Elise Parkinson, Rosalie Sholtz, Joanne McCauley, Juanita Masemore, Betty Rogers, Margaret Oliver, Mary Gillis, Jocelyn and Elizabeth Maley, Frances Brewer interpreted a Moorish dance under the direction of Miss Edna Post of Washington. These little girls have taken but six lessons, yet it is marvelous that after such a short time they have become so proficient in this art. Miss Post, the instructor, is a student of the Chalif school and a pupil of Miss Faulhaber of the Faulhaber School of Dancing, Cambridge, Mass. She displays great skill and finish.

Miss Margaret Oliver received felicitations upon every side for a delightful execution of the Scarf dance. Miss Oliver is a very young and pretty girl, and is extremely graceful, showing admirable poise.

The May rose dance by Alyce Green called for admiration. Miss Green has much natural ability in her chosen vocation. Miss Green and Miss Kathryn Maley gave the Neapolitan dance, composed by Miss Post after a study of Italian and peasant dress, dressed as Italian girls in a very commendable and graceful manner.

One of the prettiest numbers, and they were all pretty, was the dance Passepied (Old French dance), by Miss Rosalie Sholtz and Joanne Macauly. Miss Sholtz dressed as a French lady of nobility and Miss Macauley as a French courtier, danced their way into the hearts of all beholders.

Humoresque by Dvorak by Miss Martha Sanderson of DeLand was a beautiful portraiture in dancing of the course of a summer's day. Miss Sanderson, a student at Stetson university, although but fifteen years old, is an artist. She is grace personified in rythm of motion and animation.

Miss Myrtam Lotz of DeLand, also a student at Stetson delighted the onlookers with a beautiful conception of Chopin waltz in C minor. Miss Lotz is exceedingly graceful and radiates warmth most keenly in her dancing. She is a student of the Chalif school of dancing of New York and has been a pupil of Katherine Simonds and Mascha. Her dance with Miss Sanderson in the Pastorale was especially fine. This is the same dance conception which was given by Pavlowa and Mordkin in their continental tour. Miss May Ashford of DeLand was her accompanist.

Miss Post's Shepardess dance was one of the best numbers and displayed her ability to great advantage. Miss Dora Williams officiated at the piano with great skill.

"In the Garden of My Heart," sung by Miss Frances Sparber and Miss Alice Briggs was very well done and was well applauded. Mr. Tom Schumacher's piano selections were thoroughly enjoyed.

After the musical and dance program tea was served in the tea room. Mrs. Menefee Huston and Mrs. J. H. Cornwall presiding, assisted by an able corps of young ladies including Daisy and Cecelia Schmadeke, Ruth Lyon, Hazel Nelson, Mrs. J. C. Rawlings, Mrs. Arthur Blake.

LARGE AUDIENCE WITNESSED GREAT PICTURE

A very appreciative and large audience of people witnessed the first performance of the splendid and spectacular screen story "The Fall of a Nation" by Thomas Dixon at the New Daytona theatre on Tuesday evening. It is a mighty and heart stirring picture of our country's great and imminent danger, should lack of preparation keep us from ably defending ourselves in the event of attack from jealous and envious nations. The story carries us from the very foundation of our great country, showing the fine specimens of men and women, who stirred to action by oppression from the various old empires, came to a new world and established themselves in freedom. The splendid loyalty of some who have found peace and happiness here, and the venomous undercurrent of "king poison" in others and treachery of others is shown. The weakness of our men by lack of preparedness when attacked by the enemy and the fact that science not bravery wins is clearly shown.

The fate of the country under an emperor is called to mind, but the crowning victory of rigid training of our men and the systematic help of our women is very thrilling. A pretty love theme is carried through the picture. Victor Herbert music played by the theatre orchestra augmented to ten pieces was inspiring and appreciated.

The picture will be shown this afternoon and evening with a special matinee Thursday afternoon for the school children at 3:30.

BELGIANS PRIDE THEMSELVES HOLDING BACK THE GERMANS

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

WITH THE BELGIAN ARMY, Belgium, Dec. 11.—The pride of the Belgian troops in holding back the Germans from further encroachment on Belgian soil is observable immediately one enters the sector occupied by King Albert's troops. Determination to prevent any advance by the Germans and the will to push back the invaders when the time is ripe are evident anywhere.

The Associated Press correspondent has visited the Belgian advanced lines at a point between Dixmude and Boesinghe, where, for the moment, there is still fighting. Water under foot, thick mists making the atmosphere heavy and preventing observation, and cold rain falling in a continuous penetrating downpour make action almost impossible.

Out in the front lines, after a long tramp over board walks across sodden fields and irrigation channels, the correspondent saw the Belgian soldiers keeping their constant vigil, clothed in heavy woolen coverings and oilcloth raincoats and high rubber boots. Here and there a sentinel stood looking out over the mile or so of water covering the space between the Belgian and the German lines, dimly visible in the distance. No barbed wire entanglements are possible here; their place is taken by seawater, which, by the cutting of dikes, has been permitted to flow where it wills, although it renders the land uncultivable for twenty years.

The crack of an occasional rifle-shot, fired from one side or the other when a guard imagines some movement in the opposing lines, was dulled by the heavy air, and sometimes near but generally far off was heard the roar of an aerial torpedo.

It is impossible at any point of the Belgian front to excavate a trench for each spade-full of earth taken out is at once replaced by a hole full of water. In place of trenches the only way to form a protective line for the infantry occupying the front lines is to construct shelters of sand-filled canvas sacks and this has been developed into an art by the Belgian troops. For four days at a stretch the men must remain without relief at the front under these distressing conditions, but there is no complaint for the men are mostly hardy peasants or laboring men who have had to combat the Belgian climate all their lives. Hardships which for troops from other and drier districts would prove insupportable, are borne by them with cheerfulness.

King Albert, who lives near the actual fighting line, pays an almost daily visit to some part of the front. The queen, too, remains on Belgian soil, and when not engaged on hospital work is often seen walking along among the soldiers when they are enjoying a short respite from active service.

Everywhere there are evidences of America's aid to the Belgian wounded and to refugees from the interior who insist on remaining on the small portion of Belgian soil still left to them. American ambulances are often seen along the routes.

HANSOM CABS ARE AGAIN FREQUENT SIGHTS IN LONDON

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Under the stress of war, hansom cabs have again become a frequent sight in London streets. The "growler" has always been a fixture as the station cab for timid country folks, but the taxicab was deemed to have so completely banished the "gondola of London" that it was enshrined in the London museum. The cab derived its name from the inventor, John Aloysius Hansom, who sold the patent away back in the 30's for $1,500 to a company which got into difficulties and was never able to pay a penny of the money.

The original Hansom, patented on December 23, 1834, had no back seat for the driver. The inventor was an architect who became widely known in church building all over England.

PROHIBITION IN MEX. CONSTITUTION HOW UNDER CONSIDERATION

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

QUERETARO, Mexico, Dec. 11.—There seems little possibility that a clause providing for prohibition in Mexico will be included in the new constitution, according to delegates to the constitutional congress. The advisability of prohibiting the sale of intoxicants and prohibiting gambling was considered in connection with Article 4 which declares that no person shall be hindered in following any profession, industry or labor which does not offend the laws of society. The article, however, was reported from committee without specific mention of prohibition and passed as reported to the congress.

The delegates to the congress are confident for the most part that the body will complete its labors well within the time specified in the decree of General Carranza, which provides that the new constitution must be completed by February 1. The delegates declare that although there are over one hundred and thirty articles in the draft of the new constitution, there are many to which there is no opposition and that action on these will be speedy.

Although the date has not formally been issued it is known that the elections for president probably will be called for the first Sunday in March and that the successful candidate will assume office April 1.

I should not like to get along without it. I much regret that my plans for the winter do not admit of my being with these friends this season. ## MANY MASCOTS NOW AT THE LONDON ZOO

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The London Zoo has been augmented by many war, [illegible] and regimental mascots. The pets were left there in charge from the Dominions and will remain until the latter return from the fighting zones.

They range from a monkey, which survived the battle of Heligoland and the Dogger bank, to bears from Canada, which await the return of their battalions from the front.

Other mascots which will adorn the peace procession, if they live long enough are deer, attached to [illegible] life. The bears, which hail from the Rocky mountains are housed on the Mappin terrace, and are very much at home.

It is impossible at any point of the Belgian front to evacuate a trench for each spadefull of earth taken out is at once replaced by a hole full of water. In place of trenches the only way to form a protective line for the infantry occupying the front lines is to construct shelters of sand-filled canvast sacks and this has been developed into an art by the Belgian troopers. For four days at a stretch the same men remain without relief at the front under these distressing conditions, but there is no complaint for the men are mostly hardy peasants or laboring men who have had to combat the Belgian climate all their lives. Hardships which for troops from other and drier districts would prove insupportable, are borne by them with cheerfulness.

King Albert, who lives near the actual fighting line, pays an almost daily visit to some part of the front. The queen, too, remains on Belgian soil, and when not engaged on hospital work is often seen walking along among the soldiers when they are enjoying a short respite from active service.

Everywhere there are evidences of America's aid to the Belgian wounded and to refugees from the interior who insist on remaining on the small portion of Belgian soil still left to them. American ambulances are often seen along the routes.

HANSOM CABS ARE AGAIN FREQUENT SIGHTS IN LONDON

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Under the stress of war, hansom cabs have again become a frequent sight in London streets. The "growler" has always been a fixture as the station cab for timid country folks, but the taxicab was deemed to have so completely banishd the "gondola of London" that it was enshrined in the London museum. The cab derived its name from the inventor, John Aloysius Hansom, who sold the patent away back in the 50's for $50,000 to a company which got into difficulties and was never able to pay a penny of the money.

The original Hansom, patented on December 23, 1834, had no back seat for the driver. The inventor was an architect who became widely known in church building all over England.

PROHIBITION IN MEX. CONSTITUTION NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

QUERETARO, Mexico, Dec. 13.—There seems little possibility that a clause providing for prohibition in Mexico will be included in the new constitution, according to delegates to the constitutional congress. The advisability of prohibiting the sale of intoxicants and prohibiting gambling was considered in connection with Article 4 which declares that no person shall be hindered in following any profession, industry or labor which does not offend the laws of society. The article, however, was reported from committee without specific mention of prohibition and passed as reported by the congress.

The delegates to the congress are confident for the most part that the body will complete its labors well within the time specified in the decree of General Carranza which provides that the new constitution must be completed by February 1. The delegates declare that although there are over one hundred and thirty articles in the draft of the new constitution, there are many to which there is no opposition and that action on these will be speedy.

Although the call has not formally been issued it is known that the election for president probably will be called for the first Sunday in March and that the successful candidate will assume office April 1.

I should not like to get along without it. I much regret that my plans for the winter do not admit of my being with these friends this season. My daughter and I are sailing February 10th, from New York for quite an extended tour in South America. Continue paper, however, to the above address. ## MANY MASCOTS NOW AT THE LONDON ZOO

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The London Zoo has been augmented by many warship and regimental mascots. The pets were left there by troops from the Dominions and will remain until the latter return from the fighting zones.

They range from a monkey, which survived the battle of Heligoland and the Dogger bank, to bears from Canada, which await the return of their battalions from the front.

Other mascots which will adorn the peace procession, if they live long enough are deer, unsuited to trench life. The bears, which hail from the Rocky mountains are housed on the Mappin terrace, and are very much at home.

J. B. COLE NAMED TO SUCCEED CROUCH

payments are to be made to the surety company. Under such conditions should the assignment be accepted, the force of the surety bond would be impaired.

The matter of putting a coat of concrete paint on the exterior walls of the Seabreeze school building, was discussed, the contractors agreeing to have the work done at a cost not to exceed $350.00. The matter was referred to the superintendent with power to act after conferring with the architects.

A letter from A. E. Lewis confirming extra work authorized by the board on the New Smyrna school building to make the basement of said building water proof below high water levels, was filed for future reference.

A communication from John F. Culp, representative of the Wilson-Toomer Fertilizer company, requesting that the board make quit-claim deed to the Wilson-Toomer Fertilizer company for one acre of land in the Haw Creek section, on which is located a school house, was considered by the board. Inasmuch as the Dupont Land and Railway company intended to deed this acre of land to the school board for school purposes for a consideration which consideration has been carried out by the board, and since the Dupont Land company made a reservation of this one acre, and the Wilson-Toomer Fertilizer company, in deeding the tract to Will Richardson made a similar reservation for this one acre, the board considers that it has been the intention of the various owners of this land to carry out their part of the contract. The matter was therefore referred to the superintendent with instructions that he proceed with the Dupont Land company, to secure a warranty deed to the same, the requests of the Wilson-Toomer Fertilizer company, for a quit-claim deed being denied.

Upon request, the colored school at New Smyrna was granted two months extension in term. The request was granted on the grounds that the colored people of that place have for several years back extended the term by subscription.

A request from the colored people of Port Orange for two months extra term there, was considered and the board agreed to give them one extra month, provided they would raise sufficient funds to pay the teacher for one month.

A proposition from the colored people of Orange City to raise sufficient funds to extend the school term one month if the board would give them one extra month, was accepted, and the superintendent was instructed to close the matter with them at once.

A resolution was adopted providing the First National bank of Daytona, or the Park National bank of New York City, New York, as the place of payment for both interest and principal of Holly Hill School bonds.

Deeds were executed by the board to the Coronado Beach Improvement association, conveying lot 1, block 1, of the plat of subdivision of lot 2, block 1, of the Robert Walker grant, in township 17, S range 34 east, same being the vacated school property at Coronado Beach, consideration $400. The deeds were left in the hands of the superintendent to be delivered upon th receipt of a check in the sum of $400.00.

The balance to the credit of Special Tax School district No. 41, bond accounts carried by the East Coast State bank having decreased to $11,112.61, in both building account and interest account, it was ordered that one $8,000.00 surety bond now held by the board be cancelled and returned to said bank, this leaving surety bond amounting to $17,000.00 held by the board against said bank.

The total balances to the credit of Special Tax School district No. 6, bond accounts carried by the Merchants bank of Daytona, having decreased $3,000, it was ordered that one $3,000 surety bond held by the board against said bank be cancelled, this leaving sufficient surety in the hands of the board against said bank to cover total credit balances in said bank.

The retiring treasurer's books and accounts having been audited and approved by the superintendent, he reported to the board that the proper transfer of school funds was made to the Volusia County bank, said bank having duly qualified as county depository, said transfer taking place on January 2nd, 1917, as follows:

General School Fund .......... $37,261.91

Total Special Tax School District Funds .......... 24,332.45

The secretary reported that blank forms for reports, receipts, etc., as required by the comptroller's office, have been printed and furnished to the superintendent's office to the Volusia County bank.
